

NEWMAN

Senior Technical College

Find where you

Belong...

RETAIL SERVICES

Future proof

Can you think of a workplace or industry that does not rely on good customer service? Retail Services crosses over so many areas of business that the skills you develop here will serve you well into your future.

Helping others

Helping others feel good about their retail experience can be very rewarding. Being experienced in Retail Services develops good communication skills and leads to sales. Sales means profits - profits make good business. Good Business makes people feel good.

Developing trust

Not just a shop-keeper - it's all about communicating with customers, developing trust and being professional.

Skills developed in the Retail Services course transfer to a whole gamut of jobs for the future.

Worldwide access

Learning about retail services helps to develop an understanding of online marketing concepts and sales techniques. This is an area of exponential growth in the buying and selling of goods and services worldwide.

